

CHAMBER MUSIC CHARLESTON 2021-2022 CONCERT SEASON EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

EDUCATIONAL EXPENSES FOR ALL PROGRAMS

Artist fees	$19,620
Venue Fees	$7,600
Marketing & Promotion	$2,100
Printing	$2,000
Licensing	$1,300
Videography	$1,000
	$33,082

CMC EDUCATION INVESTOR LEVELS

$1,000

- Listing in CMC Program Booklet for 2021-22 Season
- Email updates every two months (August - April) on CMC educational programs, including schedule of performances and activities and interview with participants.
- Invitation to observe one CMC educational program of choice as it takes place, including masterclasses, CMC TWO coachings, Classical Kids In-School performances and Charleston Parks and Recreation after school activities.

$2,500

- Invitation to observe up to 6 CMC educational programs as they take place, including masterclasses, CMC TWO coachings, Classical Kids In-School performances and Charleston Parks and Recreation after school activities.
- Listing in CMC Program Booklet for 2021-22 Season
- Email updates every two months (August - April) on CMC educational programs, including schedule of performances and activities and interview with participants.

$5,000

- Private House Concert with performance by CMC TWO musicians (to take place in Spring, 2022)
- Invitation to observe all CMC educational programs as they take place, including masterclasses, CMC TWO coachings, Classical Kids In-School performances and Charleston Parks and Recreation after school activities.
- Listing in CMC Program Booklet for 2021-22 Season
- Email updates every two months (August - April) on CMC educational programs, including schedule of performances and activities and interview with participants.

CMC Cellist Tim O'Malley works with musicians of CMC2 at the Charleston County School of the Arts

CMC String Quartet performs a Classical Kids Concert at Frierson Elementary School

